SEPTEMBER 2006

IT'S SEPTEMBER, AND IT'S FOOD FESTIVAL TIME! FOOD FESTIVAL 2006: SEPTEMBER 29, 30, OCTOBER 1

It's just days now before the Cathedral's Food Festival Once again, the assistance of the entire community is being requested. Below are the various Festival committees. Please review the list and see where you might like to help.

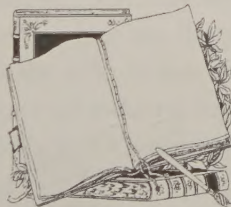

The Committees are: Souvenir Book, Wine Tasting, Raffle, Tavernas (Inside and Outside Bar), Gyro, Deli, Oktapodaki (Octopus), Pastries, Food Line, Cashiers, Vendors, Underwriters/Donors, Volunteers, Public Relations, Entertainment, Web Site Upkeep, Cooking Schedule/Cooking, Paidakia, Set-up & Layout, Procurement of Supplies, Dance Group Relations.

Volunteer forms are available at the pangari. You may also request a form by calling the Cathedral, at 415 864-8000. Forms were also included in the special festival packets which were mailed to you during the summer.

You may also help by distributing tickets to your neighbors and friends, and by placing posters in your homes and/or places of business. As your Parish is presenting the Festival, you are the Festival hosts, representing the Annunciation Cathedral. Your involvement will make for another wonderful and successful event.

SOUVENIR BOOK

Last year's Souvenir Book was superb, both in content and quality, and the amount of ads sold. It alone brought in just under $50,000. We have reached our goal again this year, as we celebrate our 85th year—our past, our present and our future.

NEW AT THE FESTIVAL THIS YEAR

Back by popular demand, this year's Festival will feature a Deli, where you can acquire many of the ingredients used in foods like pastitsio, spanakopitas, tiropitas, dolmathes, and moussaka. We will also feature some new vendors, as Karakiozis (the traditional Greek puppeteer which emerged during the time of Ottoman occupation). Also, for the first time this year, the Festival Singers will be with us, singing kantathes and other songs of yesteryear. All this is being done in an endeavor to enhance the spirit and ambiance of the Festival.

RAFFLE

Building on last year's success, the raffle committee, headed by Tom Nuris, has secured a number of exciting prizes. Help make the raffle a success by buying the raffle books which were sent to you in July or by selling them to your friends, co-workers and neighbors.

COOKING SCHEDULE

At the heart of the Food Festival, of course, is the food itself. Although times have changed, and many of our wonderful cooks of past years have gone on to eternal life, nevertheless we make every effort to be true to their time-honored recipes and offer you authentic Greek food.

The food items being prepared are: pastitsio (meat covered macaroni casserole); moussaka (eggplant and meat sauce casserole) (both are topped with béchamel sauce), tiropites (cheese filled filo dough), bell peppers (stuffed with meat and rice), spanakopitas (spinach filled filo dough), and dolmathes (rice wrapped in grape leaves). Chicken riganato (with oregano) and psari plaki (baked fish) is also prepared, closer to the dates of the festival.

Cooking of the above items began in July. We must share with you that, on each day of cooking, we had more than the necessary number of volunteers. As a result, in many cases, instead of concluding at 5 p.m., the cooking was finished shortly after noon. We thank you, our wonderful volunteers, for your enthusiasm, your know-how, and your dedication.

Our cooking schedule for September is as follows: Tuesday, September 5: FASOLAKIA (green beans); Wednesday and Thursday, September 6 and 7: KOURAMBIEDES (powder sugar-coated shortbread cookies); Tuesday, September 12: GALAKTOBOUREKO (custard filled phyllo); Tuesday, September 19: GEMISTA (stuffed bell peppers); Monday, September 25: DOLMADES (stuffed grape leaves); and Wednesday, September 27: RIZOGALO (rice pudding). All cooking will take place 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Come, join us. If you prefer to work in the evening, SOUVLAKIA (shish-kabobs) will be prepared on Tuesday, September 26, beginning at 6 p.m. Come on down.

Meanwhile, if you wish to volunteer to assist in one of these areas, please call Foula Vasilogiorgis on her cell, 415 378-7200. See you at the Festival, ke kali epitihia! (Success!)

THE CRISIS IN THE MIDDLE EAST

Although there is a cease-fire in the Middle East, between and among Hezbollah, Lebanon, and Israel, the crisis which precipitated there this summer has caused untold suffering among the inhabitants of Lebanon and Israel—Muslims, Christians and Jews.

His Eminence Metropolitan Gerasimos of San Francisco issued an encyclical letter relative to the crisis, calling upon "our government and the United Nations to intercede and to initiate strong diplomatic efforts to envision, formulate, and enforce an immediate ceasefire and a just and lasting peace.

Recognizing the humanitarian crisis resulting from the violence His Eminence appeals to all our faithful "to open their hearts and to offer whatever possible to their parishes for transmission to International Orthodox Christian Charities (IOCC) for its efforts to provide humanitarian assistance on our behalf directly to the vulnerable and suffering people and communities."

In the spirit of this directive, a Sunday collection in August, together with other funds, was forwarded to IOCC. Much help is needed. You may make a gift through the Cathedral, earmarking your donation "IOCC" or you may make a gift online at www.iocc.org, or mail a check payable to IOCC and write "Middle East Crisis 2006" in the memo line to: IOCC, P.O. Box 630225, Baltimore, MD 21263-0225. For further information, please call IOCC's hotline, toll-free, at 1-877-803-4622.

KORINTHIAS COMMITTEE COMPLETES ITS WORK BY PROVIDING A STAGE

The Bill Korinthias Committee, composed of Frank Fotenos, as Chairman, Steve G.

Chapralis, as Treasurer, and Mike Vriheas, as General Contractor, and others, have been concerned, from the outset of this first phase of our building project, to build a Gymnasium, which was named in honor of the late Bill Korinthias, founder of the OYAA (Orthodox Youth Athletic Association), and supporter of all athletic events for our youth. They raised much of the money to build the Gymnasium, provided it with hardwood flooring, backboards and a scoreboard, and affixed the appropriate signage. Each year since the construction of the gym, they have funded the refinishing of the floor. This summer, they provided a stage to be used for various events in our Korinthias Center, making it the finest gymnasium/center in the Bay Area. We extend thanks to the Korinthias Committee for their hard work and for their generosity. A job well done. Bill Korinthias left this earth some months ago, with the satisfaction that his life's work for our youth (since he had none of his own) was crowned with a center named in his honor. All of this is due to the vision and industry of the Korinthias Committee. Our community owes you a debt of gratitude.

SAN FRANCISCO MAYOR GAVIN NEWSOM TO HOST 85th ANNIVERSARY GALA OF CATHEDRAL'S FOUNDING AT CITY HALL ROTUNDA, SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 12

A black-tie optional anniversary celebration, to which the Bay Area Greek community is invited, will take place in the Rotunda of San Francisco's City Hall on Sunday, November 12, 2006. The festivities will begin with a reception in the South Light Court at 6 p.m., with live Greek music. A gala dinner will follow in the magnificently refurbished rotunda, where guests will dine to the music of Starlight Strings. The brief program will feature local television and entertainment personalities and will include a special presentation to Mayor Gavin Newsom, who is the official host for the evening, Metropolitan Gerasimos of San Francisco, and Archbishop Demetrios of America, who is our special guest of honor.

While in San Francisco, Archbishop Demetrios will deliver the Paul Manolis Distinguished Lectures at the Patriarch Athenagoras Orthodox Institute (PAOI) (Thursday, November 9 and Friday, November 10) and will celebrate the Divine Liturgy at the Annunciation Cathedral Sunday morning, November 12.

The significance of the anniversary is that, in 1921, under the presidency of His Eminence Meletios Metaxakis (the former Archbishop of Greece, who shortly thereafter became Ecumenical Patriarch), the Cathedral was established, with the added premise that San Francisco be designated as the seat of the Greek Orthodox Church for the Western States. This decision was fortuitous, both for the City of San Francisco and for the Greek-American community, which gave the City two Mayors--Mayor George Christopher and Mayor Art Agnos, as well as a number of distinguished politicians and civic leaders.

In acknowledgement of this, Mayor Gavin Newsom, granted the use of City Hall for this purpose, through the efforts of Commissioner Victor Makras.

As a matter of historical interest, Meletios Metaxakis presided over the first nineteen meetings of the Administrative or Governing Council of the then nascent Cathedral, oversaw the building of a temporary church and school at Hayes and Pierce Streets, consecrated the church, composed its charter and regulations, and named it "the Greek Orthodox Church, St. Sophia, in San Francisco." In 1936, the Cathedral reincorporated, as the "United Greek Orthodox Community of San Francisco, The Annunciation." Meanwhile, it relocated, to its present site at 245 Valencia Street.

Metaxakis also signed the minutes of each of the first nineteen meetings, as did His Eminence Metropolitan Germanos Polyzoides, another pioneer in the establishment of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America.

The minutes discuss not only the founding of the Cathedral and the Diocese of San Francisco, but also refer to the establishment of the Archdiocese (which was incorporated the following year, in 1922) and Metaxakis' vision for the role of the Archbishop, particularly in the procurement and disposition of parish property. A facsimile edition of these historic early minutes, together with an English translation, set in letterpress by Nektarios (Norman L.) McKnight, will be presented to Archbishop Demetrios, Metropolitan Gerasimos, and Mayor Newsom. A fourth copy will reside in the archives of the Cathedral.

By now, you have received your invitation. Please return the reply card/sponsorship card as soon as possible. Seating in the Rotunda is limited to the 520 people. After that, we will plan for seating in one of the light courts, in accordance with the occupancy limits for City Hall. For further information, please call the Cathedral, at 415 864-8000.

FOCUS ON YOUTH

THE ANNUNCIATION CATHEDRAL DANCE GROUPS ARE GEARING UP FOR A NEW YEAR!

Our Cathedral's dance groups (Angelakia, Filadelfakia and Aretymata) are on the road to another year of dancing with the end result being the Folk Dance Festival in Ontario, California. As many of you know, FDF is an integral part of our dance program and the bonds that our dancers make with each other and other parishes are wonderful.

Practice will resume for all the groups on Tuesday, September 5th. The practice schedule is as follows:

Angelakia - 6:30 pm to 7:30 pm

Filadelfakia - 7:30 pm to 8:30 pm

Aretymata - 7:30 pm to 9:00 pm

Aretymata may be changing their practices to Sundays after church depending on the dancers' school schedules.

There are also a lot of events in the works for the year to raise money for our groups (our hope is to pay for all dancers' FDF packages this year). We are planning a symposium in the next few months. Our Second Annual Pontic Glendi has been set for Saturday, February 10th. We also have some ideas about hosting a New Year's Event at the Cathedral for both families and singles to start 2007 off with a bang.

As for our Festival, we will, of course, be running the Gyro Booth as we do every year. However, there is going to be a second booth for the dance groups this year - we will be selling Haloumi (a Cypriot dish in honor of Father Stephen) where all proceeds will go to the dance groups to help defray FDF costs.

With all these exciting events coming up, we can't wait to see all of our dancers again. We are also asking anyone that would like to join the dance groups to please come to our first practice on September 5th. The ages for the groups are as follows:

Angelakia - ages 9 - 11

Filadelfakia - ages 12 - 15

Aretymata - ages 16 and up

We are also trying to start two new younger groups (ages 3 -5) and (ages 6 - 8). In adding these two groups we are asking for volunteers to direct these groups.

Therefore, if anyone is interested in joining the dance groups and/or directing, please contact the church or email Athena Stavrakaras, Dance Group Coordinator, at haniotisa@hotmail.com

We are looking forward to another great year!

(Note: As the Herald went to press, we learned that we have a volunteer for the younger groups, and that the groups will be practicing on Sundays, following the Divine Liturgy.

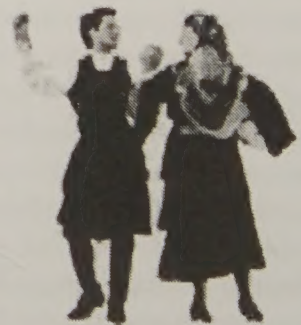

An organizational meeting will take place on Sunday, September 10, and practice will begin on Sunday, September 17.)

SUNDAY SCHOOL RESUMES SEPTEMBER 10

On behalf of the entire Sunday School Faculty, we look forward to welcoming you back from summer break and, at the same time, to welcoming newcomers to our Sunday School.

Registration will take place in the children's respective classrooms. Teachers will be on hand to greet the children and direct them to the classrooms. Sunday School begins at 10:30 a.m. Please be on time. At the conclusion of the Divine Liturgy, Father Stephen will celebrate an aghiasmos (blessing) service for the beginning of the school year.

This year we will be making a special effort to restore the tradition of a proper dress code for our youth. Out of respect, all students are asked to refrain from wearing jeans, sweat pants and tennis shoes to church. (This attire may be appropriate for dancing, basketball, and other functions, but not for church).

Marriage is more than human. It is a "microbasileia," a miniature kingdom, which is the little house of the Lord.

SUNDAY SCHOOL: SOME THOUGHTS

We, the parents, are the primary teachers of our children. They learn from our words and, mostly, from our actions. We are responsible for instructing them in the Faith and for teaching them what it means to be an Orthodox Christian.

The goal of the Sunday School is to be a partner in our children's journey towards becoming Orthodox adults.

Today, we are teaching the children and even the grandchildren of our former students. Interestingly enough, our former students recall their Sunday School days with fondness. Many of them remain friends to this day. More importantly, they have returned to the Cathedral to raise their own children in the Faith which they were taught as children.

At the Cathedral, we follow the prescribed curriculum of the Archdiocese. From Pre-school to 4th grade (we call this the "Lower School"), our students focus on the "How" of things—how to make the Sign of the Cross, how to recite the Lord's Prayer and the Nicene Creed, how to take Holy Communion. Beginning in the 5th grade (we call this the "Upper School," and we go through high school), we explore the "why" of things—why do we sing hymns, why do we read the Bible and participate in the Divine Liturgy, why do we embrace the truth of Orthodoxy as vital to our salvation. We team with you, the parents, for yet another generation of students.

Faith, fun, friendship—these won't happen unless your child comes to class on a regular basis. Faith and friendship must be seeded and then nourished over time. Regular attendance gives us a chance to do just that.

Please use the handouts your children bring home as an opportunity for family discussion, especially around the dinner table.

We are excited about the new school year and we look forward to your continued support. When you come to Sunday School on September 10, we ask that you accompany your child upstairs, meet the teacher, and complete the registration. Classes are held from 10:30 to 11:30 a.m. each Sunday. Then, the students go to church for Holy Communion and for the remainder of the Divine Liturgy.

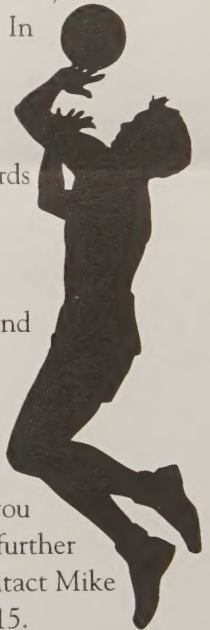

GREEK SCHOOL RESUMES OCTOBER 11TH

Greek School will begin following the Festival, on Wednesday, October 11. It will take place in the second floor conference room at 4:00 p.m. It will be taught, once again, by Demetra Armenakis. Greek School is open to young people, first grade and up. Since we pay the teacher, we charge $200 for each child ($150 for the second child in the same family). This charge is negligible compared with the benefits your children derive from learning a second language and, in the case of most of them, the language of their parents or grandparents. It is also the language in which the New Testament was written, not to mention the Iliad and the Odyssey, poetry, tragedies, comedies, and philosophical writings of ancient Greece. On a practical level, high school credit is given to those who take modern Greek as a second language, and pass the appropriate tests.

Do you think you can be of further assistance? We are still in need of three assistant teachers to help at different grade levels. Please contact Denise Yeilding, dyeilding@yahoo.com, 415 585-5883, or Father Stephen, dean@annunciation.or, 415 864-8000 if you can help or if you can suggest whom we could approach to help.

BASKETBALL AWARDS DINNER SEPTEMBER 21

Family members and players are invited to Annunciation's Basketball Awards dinner, which will take place in our Korinthias Center Thursday, September 21, beginning at 6:30 p.m. In recognition of their sportsmanship and participation in the program, trophies and awards will be presented to all our youth participants. Dinner will be served promptly at 6:30 p.m. and our program will conclude by 8 p.m. Each year, the awards dinner is a success. We look forward to welcoming you on September 21. For further information, please contact Mike Canellos, at 415 864-815.

Young people must be made to distinguish between helpful and injurious knowledge, keeping clearly in mind the Christian's purpose in life. So, like the athlete or the musician, they must bend every energy to one task, the winning of the heavenly crown.

CLASSES AND PROGRAMS FOR ADULTS

The Cathedral offers a number of classes for adults. They are:

1. Class on Orthodoxy: An Introduction to the Orthodox Church. This class, taught by Michael Dwyer, introduces the Orthodox Faith, its tenets and its polity and is designed primarily for those adults who are considering being received into the Church through Baptism/Chrismation. It meets in the second floor conference room every Sunday morning at 9 a.m. Following, catechumens attend the Divine Liturgy and remain until the prayers of for the catechumens are recited.
2. Class on the Scriptures, with a view to the end-time imagery of the Book of Revelation. This class, conducted by Marina Taylor, in Greek, meets in the second floor conference room, following the Sunday Divine Liturgy.
3. Wednesday morning Bible Study. This class considers the Apostolic reading for the following Sunday, including its authorship, the circumstance of its writing, and its relevance to us today. It follows a Paraclesis (Supplication Service), which is celebrated in the chapel at 10 a.m. On the first Wednesday of each month, a Service of Holy Unction (Efthelaion) is celebrated instead of the Supplication Service.
4. Learning Community is a Bible Study, with an emphasis on contemporary issues in light of the Scriptures. It also convenes in the second floor conference room, at 7 p.m., and will resume on Thursday, September 14.

YOU ARE INVITED TO A BOOK SIGNING

A timely book, entitled "Too Much For Our Own Good: the Consumeritis Epidemic and Good Movies," by Harrison Sheppard and Alex Aris, will be introduced at the Cathedral, on Tuesday evening, September 12, beginning at 6:30 p.m. The authors will be on hand to sign you copy of the book. We have been informed by the Committee that Metropolitan Gerasimos and Mayor Newsom are among those attending the event. Mezedhes and refreshments will be served.

COMMUNITY LINK SEEKS VOLUNTEERS

Caroline Pappajohn, chair of Community Link, invites you to the next Community Link, a program which interfaces with homebound parishioners. We will meet next on Saturday, September 9, at 10 a.m. Meanwhile, volunteers are asked to take ownership of one or more of the following tasks:

1. Put up a bulletin board in the vestibule just outside the chapel with information concerning Community Link (The bulletin board to church already. Now we need content to put on it before we put it up.)
2. Create a brochure with which to advertise/promote/recruit for community link.
3. Create our very own Community Link Stationary so we can use it to regularly write letters to folks on our list to stay in touch with folks between the monthly visits.
4. Regularly obtain the names of people from our community who are sick so that we can visit them.
5. Gather best practices from other churches and share them with the group, so we can learn from how others are doing this type of program.
6. Commit to making 1-2 phone calls and/or writing 1-2 letters every month in between our visits. (
7. Update the group via email following each community link Saturday (we meet once a month) to let us know how the visit went, any requests, any new information (e. g. birthday or name day).

We thank you for helping to continue and strengthen this ministry. The mail we receive, following our visits, suggests this work is important, indeed. May we continue to glorify God in this work.

The Orthodox Church has always placed great emphasis on fasting. We fast on Wednesdays because on this day the decision was made to arrest Jesus. We fast on Fridays because it is the day on which Jesus was crucified. Fasting helps us remember that these are special days in the history of salvation.
